

Kimberly K. Eaton, CPA

Kim is a Sr. Manager with Crowe Horwath LLP. She has over fifteen year of experience in the food and agriculture industry, working extensively with private and cooperative food and commodity companies as well as manufacturing companies in areas of audit and review services, federal, multi-state and national corporate and partnership tax preparation and planning, financial budgeting and forecasting, business restructuring, risk management, internal controls and a variety of other financial and management consulting areas.

Education

B.S. in Accounting and Business Administration, Indiana University

Professional Affiliations

Kim is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), Florida Institute of CPA's (FICPA), Indiana CPA Society, Agribusiness Council of Indiana (ACI), Agribusiness Finance Council, and Financial Executives International (FEI). She has served on the Accounting and Auditing Committee for the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives (NSAC) and has served as a board member and past President of the Mississippi Valley Chapter of the NSAC.

Community Service

Kim is and has been active in various community activities including the American Cancer Society and local youth organizations.