

Philip W. Miller

Philip W. Miller is the Executive Secretary for the Virginia Cooperative Council headquartered in Richmond, VA. He recently retired as Vice President & Controller for Southern States Cooperative in Richmond, Virginia, after a thirty-six year career. While at Southern States, he served as an Internal Auditor, Senior Auditor, Assistant Manager of Internal Audit, Manager of Corporate Accounting and Assistant Controller before being promoted to Controller in 2000. Prior to his joining Southern States, Phil worked for Walden Inventory Services. Prior to that, he served for two years in the United States Army as a member of the President's Honor Guard in Ft. Meyer, Virginia. He was born in Nevada and grew up on a farm in southern Indiana.

Phil received his BA in Economics from Berea College in 1968 and completed post graduate studies in Accounting at Virginia Commonwealth University in 1978. He is a retired licensed CPA in Virginia and former member of the AICPA and the Virginia Society of CPAs. He is a former national director for the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives (NSAC), and served as national president of NSAC in 2001-2002. He serves as an editor and writer for NSAC's national magazine, the Cooperative Accountant, and as an Education Director for NSAC.

Phil his wife Vicki reside in Richmond, Virginia. In his spare time, Miller enjoys golf, reading, hiking and gardening.

Philip W. Miller
6606 W. Broad St.
P.O. Box 26234
Richmond, VA 23260
(804) 281-1211
phil.miller@sscoop.com

Residence:
18 Tow Path Lane S.
Richmond, VA 23221
(804) 359-7649