In my practice, I focus on assisting clients in achieving their business objectives through legal strategies."

INTRODUCTION

Dan is a shareholder in Fredrikson & Byron's Corporate Group and has a strong background working with cooperatives. Dan advises all types of organizations on business, transactional, and governance issues. Dan has been named as a Minnesota Super Lawyer by Minnesota Law and Politics and he was recognized as one of Minnesota's Top 40 Business and Commercial Lawyers in 2005.

Dan has advised numerous cooperatives and other businesses on matters ranging from basic formation to complex mergers, acquisitions, and joint venture structures. He has over 20 years experience in the organization, structuring, governance, and financing of cooperatives, and has structured many cooperative joint ventures utilizing a variety of formats. Dan has also advised cooperatives on anti-trust and Capper-Volstead compliance issues.

In addition, Dan is experienced in negotiating and drafting agreements for mergers, asset purchase acquisitions, and business combinations in a variety of industries. He also works with charter schools on issues related to organization, financing, and ongoing operations.
