

March 11, 2010

Tyrus H. Thompson

Ty Thompson is Chief Member Counsel for the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association in Arlington, Virginia. A native of Raleigh, North Carolina, Ty graduated magna cum laude in Industrial Engineering from North Carolina State University in 1987. After working approximately two years as an Inside Sales Engineer in Charlotte, N.C., Ty attended the University of North Carolina School of Law in Chapel Hill and graduated in 1992.

After working briefly for a personal injury law firm in Durham, N.C., Ty practiced law four and one-half years at the law firm founded by Bill Crisp in Raleigh. While there, Ty worked extensively with electric cooperatives. In July 1997, Ty began working for NRECA. At NRECA, Ty works primarily with electric cooperative tax, corporate governance, and operational legal issues. In addition, Ty is an Editor for NRECA's monthly Legal Reporting Service; presents at NRECA's annual Legal Seminar; co-teaches NRECA Course 925.1, "Cooperative Bylaws: Guiding Principles and Current Issues;" researches and drafts sample electric cooperative documents like NRECA's Bylaw Revision Guide; speaks at various conferences, seminars, and meetings regarding electric cooperative legal and policy issues; counsels NRECA regarding corporate governance legal issues; and serves as Parliamentarian for the NRECA Board of Directors.