

Roger Van Someren

Roger is a partner with Carlson Highland & Co., LLP. He works with locally owned farm supply, consumer and electric cooperatives, local mutual insurance companies and non-profit organizations providing auditing and other business services. He also provides tax preparation services for local businesses and individuals.

Roger has worked for the cooperative system for 28 years. He passed the CPA exam in 1985 and is licensed in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Colorado and Iowa. Roger grew up on a dairy farm in Baldwin, Wisconsin. He and his wife, Lois have three grown children.